Dear Jin Li,

I found your letter of 2 January touching. You are quite right - competitions are cruel, but they do strengthen one's resolve and give one enormous experience.

I do hope I will see you soon, and I am deeply moved to learn that you have not lost your aspiration and your devotion to the violin.

Yours sincerely,

Yehudi Menuhin

Dear Jin Li,

Sir Yehudi has asked me to let you know that he would be free to hear you play on April 13 here at 65 Chester Square. Could you please come to the house at 2.00 p.m.?

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Vera Lamport (Mrs)

Dear Jin Li,

As I understand from Peter Norris that he won't be seeing you in the near future, I am sending you postal orders in the total amount of £50. This is just to tide you over until I can make some arrangement to get some spending money to you. Just fill in your name on the top line on each postal order. Then take them to the post office (any post office will do) where you can cash them. Although you can fill in your name on the top line, you have to sign the postal orders on the second line in the presence of the assistant at the post office.

With all good wishes,

Vera Lamport

Dear Jin Li,

As promised this morning, I am sending you a cheque for £92.00, which covers the cost of your travel card (£41.90) and the rest is your allowance for the next four weeks. I understand from Peter Norris that a couple of weeks ago you received your payment from the ECO of about £50, and I believe Peter Norris mentioned to you that you should put this towards the allowance you receive from Sir Yehudi. The remainder of the enclosed cheque is therefore the £50 which together with the £50 you had from the ECO make up the £100 for the coming 4 weeks.

With all good wishes,

Dear Jin Li

Thank you for your letter of 28th October, 1992 regarding work with this orchestra which has been passed on to me.

There are no auditions planned at present but I will forward your details to the Panel and will contact you again should they wish to hear you play.

Yours sincerely

Dear Jin Li

I am sorry you had to wait so long for the cassette - it was not easy to find!

Lord Menuhin sends you his very best wishes. It is always nice to hear from you and your letter sounds fulfilled and happy.

With all good wishes
Yours sincerely
